

Ruth Bader Ginsburg

An American Shero
March 15, 1933 - Sept. 18, 2020

Notorious RGB

Ruth Bader Ginsburg ended life as a Justice on the Supreme Court of the United States of America. She was appointed by President Bill Clinton in 1993. She was only the second woman to make it to the highest court in our country!

She graduated from Columbia but also attended Harvard, too. Ruth was married and had a son and a daughter. She always said she had three strikes against her on graduating to become a working lawyer – Jewish, female, and a mother.

Notorious RBG had a very successful law career. She started as a centrist and ended up being a strong feminist and a liberal. As a champion of women's and minority rights, she defended those till the very end. Ruth displayed strength and resilience in the face of personal loss and health crises.

This coming January 2021 we will celebrate her life and other things! The date to be determined later.

As we go forward please remember these Ruth quotes:

- When asked when will there be enough women on the Supreme Court – she said, “When there are 9!”
- “My mother told me to be a lady and that meant be your own person, be independent.”
- “Fight for the things you care about but do it in a way that will lead others to join you.”
- “There are many others.”
